Significant sub-Contractor

Means any sub-contractor appointed or to be appointed by the prospective bidder to undertake or perform a significant amount (whether as a percentage, by value or otherwise) of the prospective bidder's obligations under any of the Project Agreement or any license to be granted in connection with the Project. If the prospective bidder is uncertain as to whether a proposed sub-contractor is, or is intended to be, a Significant Sub-Contractor then the Ministry would encourage the prospective bidder to complete the PQQ on the presumption that such sub-contractor is a Significant Sub-contractor.

Save as expressed to be "business days", all references to "days" in this PQQ shall mean calendar days.

References to "including" means "including without limitation" (with related word being construed accordingly), "in particular" mean "in particular but without limitation", and other general words shall not be given a restrictive interpretation by reason of their being preceded or followed by words indicating a class of acts, matters or things.

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Purpose of this PQQ

As an organization that has expressed an interest in the Project being tendered, this PQQ assesses your professional and technical qualifications and competence which includes technical knowledge and experience, capability, capacity and organizational and financial standing to meet the requirements for the Project.

You are being asked to complete one PQQ for Kapisa Project.

Following assessment of the completed PQQs from prospective bidders, the intention is to arrive at a list of Qualified Bidders who will be invited to submit Bids.

This PQQ is being provided on the same basis to all prospective bidders. All prospective bidders shall be treated fairly and without discrimination.

Prospective bidders should note that the Ministry may take into account information provided to the Ministry by the prospective bidders, whether as part of this PQQ or otherwise, that addresses a specific requirement in evaluating Bids, or information which is generally available in the public domain relating to the prospective bidder and which the Ministry believes may impact on the prospective bidder's suitability to undertake the Project.

Prospective bidders should also note that successful qualification does not, in itself mean that the prospective bidder shall automatically meet the Ministry's requirements for financial standing and technical ability for the Project at the Bid evaluation stage.

1.2 Structure of this PQQ

Prospective bidders must adhere to the format and fully comply with all of the requirements of this PQQ when answering the questions. Where questions cannot be answered fully, please provide relevant explanation and details. Please keep responses concise and adhere to any requirements stated as to the maximum length of the response.

1.3 Non-Disclosure Agreement and Authority Letter

To gain access to the Data Room, and in any event not later than with the submission of the PQQ, prospective bidders must complete and return the NDA and Authority letter. Where there is a Change in Composition between the time of submission of the NDA and the time of further NDA and Authority Letter Covering the newly constituted prospective bidder according to R.11.1 as soon as possible and in any event with the submission of the PQQ.

1.4 Clarifications and requests for further information relating to this PQQ

Prospective bidders may wish to raise clarifications or request further information on elements of this PQQ.

All information requests and clarifications relating to this PQQ shall be written in English and Dari or Pashto and submitted to lsmc@momp.gov.af

Prospective bidders shall not contact any person within, or associated with, the Ministry or the Government in connection with any requests for additional information of clarifications relating to this PQQ, except in writing as set out above.

Such clarification and information requests shall receive written responses as soon as practicable and where the Ministry considers the clarification or information request would be or relevance to all prospective bidders, the question (either in full or a summary) and response may be distributed to all prospective bidders, preserving the anonymity of the requesting prospective bidders (via on the Ministry Website) at any time clarifications of amendments to any information or documents including any information contained in this PQQ.

Prospective bidders should seek their own advice, whether legal, technical, financial or otherwise in relation to any clarification or information requests and any answers provided. Any answers, clarifications or information provided should be treated as confidential by prospective bidders.

1.5 Disclosure of information

All information received and any communications with prospective bidders shall, subject to the Applicable Laws, be treated in confidence. However, prospective bidders acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) all information provided to the Ministry in connection with this PQQ may be made available to any person who is assisting the Ministry in respect of the Project;
- (b) following qualification, the names of Qualified Bidders may be announced and published on the Ministry Website;
- (c) certain aspects of any meetings and site visits during the tender process may occur at the same time for all prospective bidders and therefore prospective bidders may ascertain the identities of other prospective bidders;
- (d) following evaluation, the names of Reserve and Preferred Bidders may be announced and published on the Ministry Website;
- (e) as set out in paragraph 1.5 above, information requests and responses may be distributed to all prospective bidders, preserving the anonymity of the requesting prospective bidder;
- (f) such information may be contained in the record and report to be prepared by the Ministry in accordance with the Applicable Laws, and
- (g) A copy of the Project Agreement and licenses and the name of the parties may be disclosed and published on the Ministry Website at the conclusion of the tender processes.

1.6 Instructions for completion

Prospective bidders should ensure all questions are answered accurately and as concisely as possible and, where a question is not relevant to the prospective bidder, this should be indicated with a suitable explanation. Prospective bidders must complete this PQQ electronically rather than by hand.

Where the prospective bidder is an Association, then:

- a Part a Mandatory Requirement should only be ticked if all the Association Members comply with that Mandatory Requirement;
- the answers given to Part B (Questions 5 to 10 inclusive), Part C and Part D must include full information for each of the Association Members and must clearly identify which Association Member each part of the response relates to. The term “prospective bidder” in each of these questions shall be deemed to mean each Association Member; and
- each Association Member must ensure that it has reviewed the prospective bidder’s response to this PQQ, agrees that it is complete and accurate and each Association Member must provide a separate signed PQQ Statement of Compliance as part of the prospective bidder’s responses to this PQQ.

The information supplied will be checked by the Ministry for completeness and compliance before responses are evaluated. The Ministry may, at its sole and absolute discretion, ask further queries and/or ask for further information to be provided.

Completed PQQs received from prospective bidders by the PQQ Submission Deadline will be considered in accordance with the procedures set out in paragraph 1.11 of this PQQ. In the event that none of the responses are deemed satisfactory, the Ministry reserves the right at its sole and absolute discretion to terminate the tender process.

Failure to make a satisfactory response, or supply documentation referred to in responses, or failure to furnish any other required information within the specified timescale may/and mean that a prospective bidder is disqualified and may not be invited to participate further in the tender processes.

Prospective bidders must ensure that all information attached to this PQQ or submitted in response to the questions in this PQQ, or in response to an information or confirmation request, is true and accurate. In the Ministry’s sole and absolute discretion, the submission of inaccurate, misleading, or misrepresentative information. As well as the omission of any information may lead to the disqualification of the prospective bidder, rejection of any associated bid, withdrawal of any offer to grant the Project Agreement, license or rescission of any agreements, including the Project Agreement and licenses, entered into between the Ministry and the disqualified prospective bidder.

1.7 instructions for submission of the completed PQQ

Your PQQ must be completed in English and Dari or Pashto and submitted:

- via email to lsmc@momp.gov.af
- In hard copy to technical member of LSMC, Ministry of Mines and Petroleum, near Charayi Abdulhaq(Abdulhaq circle) Kabul, Afghanistan.

The PQQ must be submitted in accordance with the above so that both email copies of the completed PQQ and the hard copy are received no later than the PQQ Submission Deadline. It is the prospective bidder’s responsibility to make sure it has allowed sufficient time for the PQQ to arrive at the above address before the PQQ Submission Deadline (taking into account likely courier/delivery time).

Please note that completed PQQs may be submitted at any time before the PQQ Submission Deadline, but any completed PQQs received after the PQQ Submission dead line may, at the Ministry's sole and absolute discretion, be rejected and in such instance the prospective bidder will be disqualified and not invited to participate further.

1.8 Change in Composition to prospective bidders

From the submission of the PQQ up to and including the date that the request for Proposal issued to qualified Bidders, prospective bidders may not make and the Ministry will not consider any Change in Composition. Thereafter any Change in composition will be subject to the terms of the Request for Proposal.

The Ministry would encourage all prospective bidders to seriously consider the composition of the bidding entity as early in the process as possible in order to avoid unnecessary change in Composition.

1.9 prospective bidder contact point

Prospective bidders must include a single point of contact in their organization for their response to the PQQ which shall initially be the person identified in Question 1 of Part B of this PQQ. The point of contact must be authorized to liaise with the Ministry on behalf of the prospective bidder. The Ministry will not be responsible for contacting the prospective bidder through any route other than the nominated contact. The prospective bidder must therefore promptly notify the Ministry in writing of any change to the nominated contact.

1.10 Bidder selection

The objective of the qualification process is to select prospective bidders who are qualified to submit Bids.

Prospective bidders must satisfy the Mandatory Requirements set out at Part A in order to be considered for qualification for the Project. Where the prospective bidder is an Association, then each Association Member must satisfy the Mandatory Requirements individually.

In addition, the Ministry may disqualify any prospective bidders who:

- (a) fail to comply with the requirements of this PQQ;
- (b) fail to complete properly and sign Part F of this PQQ,
- (c) fail to provide a satisfactory response to any questions in the PQQ or inadequately or incorrectly complete any question;
- (d) fail to submit a completed PQQ before the PQQ Submission Deadline; or
- (e) Change, drop, switch or replace any of the Association Members, or alter the structure of the proposed Association with which they responded to the PQQ, other than in relation to a Change in Composition that has been consented to by Ministry.

Prospective bidders who comply with the Mandatory Requirements set out in this PQQ shall be considered on the basis of responses to Part B to D of this PQQ. The Ministry is looking for responses to the PQQ which are full, complete and relevant to the Question being asked and which demonstrate a sound financial standing and technical ability in order to successfully undertake the Project. Evidence of successful development and operation of Marble production facilities including the successful exploitation or successful transition to exploitation by other of quarry materials to be used for the production of Marble shall be taken into account by the Ministry as part of its consideration of the technical ability of the prospective bidders.

The Ministry may seek independent financial, technical and market advice to validate information declared by prospective bidders and to assist in its evaluation. The Ministry reserves the right to conduct site visits to prospective bidders' existing Marble production facility and/or facilities and/or ask for presentations as part of the PQQ process.

Evaluation of bids at the award stage will identify Preferred and Reserve Bidders using the Evaluation Criteria. However, responses to the PQQ may also be considered by the Ministry when evaluation Bids.

If the prospective bidder's qualifications change at any stage in the tender process after the submission of their response to this PQQ, the prospective bidder must promptly notify the Ministry of any and all such changes.

Prospective bidders should also note that, if successfully qualified, they shall be required to submit with their Bid a statement of compliance in which they confirm that to the best of their knowledge the information submitted in their response to this PQQ remains true and accurate in all material respects and will be asked to specify where this is no longer the case.

1.11 Debriefing

As required by the Applicable Laws the Ministry shall, upon request, communicate promptly to an unsuccessful prospective bidder the reason for its failure to qualify, at the expense of such bidder.

1.12 Formalities

The Ministry reserves the right to change without notice the basis of, or the procedures for, the competitive tendering process or to terminate the process at any time.

None of the Ministry, the Government, or any of their respective directors, members, officers, employees, consultants, contractors or advisor's warrants or represents the completeness of accuracy of this PQQ or supporting documentation nor accepts any liability (whether in contract or tort (including negligence), under statute or otherwise) with respect to the accuracy or completeness of this PQQ or supporting documentation or reasonableness of any assumptions.

No information contained in this PQQ or in any communication made between the Ministry, Government and any prospective bidder in connection with this PQQ shall be relied upon as constituting a contract, agreement or representation that any contract shall be offered in accordance with this PQQ.

All materials and documentation submitted to the Ministry in response to this PQQ or as part of this tender process shall become the sole property of the Ministry. Subject to the requirements of paragraph 1.6 of this PQQ, the Ministry reserves the right to use, in its sole discretion subject to Applicable Laws, all or part of any such information.

The Ministry will not reimburse any costs incurred by prospective bidders in connection with the preparation or submission of their responses to this PQQ, and by submitting their responses to this PQQ, prospective bidders acknowledge and agree that the Ministry and the Government will be discharged from any such liability to the fullest extent permitted by law.

1.13 No canvassing

Any improper approaching of, or any attempt to procure information from, any government official, public sector employee, or agent of the Ministry or Government including any consultant, contractors or advisers of the foregoing by any prospective bidder concerning this PQQ other than pursuant to paragraph 1.5 of this PQQ, is explicitly forbidden and may result in the disqualification of the prospective bidder. For the purposes of this paragraph ‘improper’ shall mean dishonest and/or against a law or a rule and/or which is outside of the ordinary course of reasonable professional conduct in respect of such matters.

1.14 No anticompetitive behavior

Prospective bidders shall not provide false information in order to influence the outcome of the bidding process, or offer or give bribes either directly or indirectly to a procurement official, or engage in collusion to monopolize bidding procedures and to establish bid elements at uncompetitive levels or do anything which prevents the promotion of a free, open and competitive bidding system.

Prospective bidders shall not, directly or indirectly, during the execution or award of the project or for a related activity, provide any gratuity, gift or any favor to any public official, employee or agent of the state or any other public agency or to any member of their families.

PART A – MANDATORY REQUIREMENTS

The following Mandatory Requirements must be met by each prospective bidder and, where the prospective bidder is an Association, each Association Member. The Ministry will not accept exceptions, conditions or reservations to the Mandatory Requirement.
